LOCAL NOTES.

Tomorrow is St. Patrick's day in the morning.

Mr. C. W. Copeland says he has increased his dairy—two.

Miss Etta Titman, of Newport, is visiting friends in this city.

An amateur baseball league, consisting of the principal valley towns, is talked of.

T. Jay Buford came over from the Reservation and spent Sunday and Monday with his family.

Lawyer McLeary, Stark county, Ohio, is here with a view to locating to practice his profession.

We were promised a communication from Yaquina this week but was unavoidably disappointed.

When spring time comes, gentle Anne, there is going to be considerable building done in the town of Toledo.

The rumor that the O. P. Steamer Willamette Valley was libeled at San Francisco seems to have been unfounded.

After a long and vexatious delay our job press has finally arrived and we are now fairly "in it" for job printing.

If you have a watch or clock that needs repairing send it to J. L. McCulloch, at Yaquina City. All work guaranteed.

Mrs. C. G. Copeland received this week a full line of shoes, and is able to supply the demand for any kind of a shoe.

J. L. McCulloch, the jeweler of Yaquina City, has a full line of Jewelry. Repairing a specialty. Send your work to him.

Many of the young people of this vicinity would like to join in organizing a literary and debating society. Who will take the initiative?

Mrs. Geo. Rosebrook visited friends in this city today. She was enroute to Corvallis from San Francisco where she has been living this winter.

The O. P. steamer, Willamette Valley, came in from San Francisco this morning and tied up at the Yaquina dock. She brought up a fair load of freight and passengers.

Those who have planned their faith firmly to the Bay country, and continues to do so, will be amply rewarded. The rapid development of the country is assured and the benefits will be correspondingly great.

The Yaquina Bay News, of Newport, is rapidly improving and promises soon to be a newspaper the town should be proud of. The people of Newport and vicinity should give its rustling managers a liberal support.

Corvallis has sold her issue of $50,000 water bonds for $52,113 and accrued interest. $28,000 of this money will be used immediately in purchasing the water works plant of the Corvallis Water Co., and balance in extending the water system.

L. P. Manning, of Yaquina City, who went to San Francisco to get his leg reset, is fast improving, and thinks he will have a good sound leg again. Mr. Manning has had a very bad time with his leg, and only his cast iron constitution preserved his life. He expects to return to Yaquina about the middle of April.

The Oregon Development Co. is now a part of the Oregon Pacific. A whole lot of extra red tape has been done away with. Receiver Hadley is doing things in a very decidedly business way. Inside of a year the road, including steamers, will be doing a paying business, the employees will be paid monthly and our people will have reason to rejoice.—Athens Democrat.

Mrs. T. P. Fish is on the sick list.

Our thanks are due Mr. Robt. Campbell, of Newport, for favors received.

Hon. C. B. Crosno and Dr. Rich had business in Corvallis the first of the week.

Bro. Van Cleave came in from Albany on Tuesday, where he had been visiting his family.

A St. Patrick's dance will be given in Newport tomorrow night. Several of our young people contemplate going down.

It is our intention to give each town and locality in Lincoln county a descriptive write-up as fast as our time will permit.

If you wish to send any sample copies of the LEADER outside to friends you are welcome to send any of this week's issue.

This is the time of the year when it will pay you to keep a sharp eye on your quadrupeds, that they may escape death in a mud or tide hole.

T. E. Johnson, of Fruitland, was in town the first of the week. Mr. Johnson has a large body of land there which he is rapidly improving.

Sheriff Landis informs us that as soon as his books and blanks arrive, which will be in a short time, he will be ready to proceed to the collection of due taxes.

John Leuenberger, of Yaquina City, the old reliable boot and shoe maker of the Bay, invites the trade of Lincoln county through the columns of the LEADER this week.

Sheriff Landis informs us that he has decided to appoint J. W. Parrish, deputy sheriff. The appointment will be a good one in every way. The appointment will soon be made.

County Clerk Jones has appointed, J. H. Lutz as deputy clerk. Mr. Lutz is a highly respected young man and his appointment will no doubt give universal satisfaction.

Ranchers along the new wagon road between Toledo and Newport have been donating a great deal of work toward opening up the road which, when opened will make a shorter route to Toledo by about four miles.

Capt. Robertson has beached the jaunty little steamer Benton and will give her a fresh coat of paint and otherwise improve her appearance. The Captain is evidently getting ready for the heavy summer trade which he no doubt will have.

Toledo offers a good opening for a bright attorney. There is no attorney at Toledo, and but one in the county—Attorney Sheppard, of Alsea. The opening is a good one and if these lines meet the eye of an attorney who wishes a good location we can tell him that it will pay him to look the situation over.

The editor of the LEADER made a trip to Newport and Yaquina City last Tuesday, to meet and get acquainted with the people of these thriving cities, and can speak a good word for genial hospitality and kindness with which he was received at both places. Several subscribers were obtained at each place.

We would call attention to the advertisement of Peter Tellefson, a rustling young merchant of Yaquina City, in this issue of the paper. Mr. Tellefson has recently removed his store one door west of his old stand into his own room, where he can display his full stock to much better advantage.

Jonas Bushell has organized a lodge of Good Templars at Newport, under the name of Newport Lodge No. 410, with the following officers: F. C. Whitten, C. T.; Mrs. Jennie Hollowell, V. T.; Miss Kate M. Stimpson, chaplain; John Loomis, secretary; Miss Flora Hollowell, asst. secretary; Miss Agnes Huffie, financial secretary; W. H. Whitten, treasurer; E. W. Stimpson, marshal; Miss Lena Hume, deputy marshal; Lee Hollowell, guard; C. O. Mann, sentinel; Mrs. L. S. Duoy, lodge deputy; Mrs. Hattie V. Tracy, Supt. J. T. Miss Villa Watson, P. C. T.; M. C. Davis, G.

Mrs. S. T. Jeffreys, wife of Representative Jeffreys, of Corvallis, came over last Monday to visit Mrs. T. P. Fish.

The Stayton Times says the San Francisco Examiner's great prize distribution has flooded Oregon with match boxes.

The agricultural college at Corvallis, have some choice varieties of seed potatoes from the agricultural department at Washington, D. C., for free distribution.

Hamilton, Job & Co., Corvallis bankers, are out $320, by a slick James Baker, alias Condon, late of Soap creek, Benton county. He forged the signature of a Mr. Baker.

We are in receipt of the Woodburn Independent under the management of Messrs. Day and Auterson. The paper is neat, newsy and shows much improvement as a local newspaper.

Geo. Bamford was in town last Monday and gave us a call. He is interested in the coal mine of Bamford & Co. located about six miles northwest of here. He reports work on the development of the mine progressing very favorably. Work on a road from the mine to tidewater will soon be begun.

While the LEADER earnestly desires to get all the news of the county, we must courteously, but positively, decline to admit articles of a wholly personal nature that in no way affect the public welfare. Life is too short to throw open the columns of our paper for personalities of that kind.

Mr. Buford has changed the name of the hotel to the "Lincoln House." The card appears in another column. Under the new management the house has been thoroughly renovated and everything is in first-class shape, and charges are reasonable. The Lincoln House will be one of the most popular houses on the Bay.

Unfortunately we did not print enough copies of the LEADER last week to supply the demand. In fact the demand for Lincoln county's new paper far exceeded our highest expectation. This week we issue 500 copies and if that is not enough we will print some more. We feel very much gratified by the kindly expressions given us by the people of the county generally, and will in the future try to merit their confidence.

The county has purchased of C. W. Webber, of Portland, representing the A. H. Andrews Co., of Chicago, three roll-top desks for the use of the clerk, sheriff and district court, two rotary chairs, one stool and one table. This is all the furniture purchased at present, while tables and some other fixtures will be made by resident carpenters. The furniture described above is all of good make, and will last for fifty years. The whole furniture bill amounts to less than $550.

The Wall Street Journal says: The situation in Oregon Pacific affairs promises a sensation bigger than Wall street has had for a long time. We understand the bondholders have succeeded in having a new receiver appointed in Oregon and are preparing to organize to prosecute the old management on what are called criminal proceedings. Oregon Pacific bonds, placed originally at 102, are selling at 60. A bond expert report had been made, which is in private circulation because of its startling character.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.

Arrivals at the popular Lincoln House for week ending March 15, 1893:

W. E. Young, Corvallis; Robt. Campbell, Newport; C. Ewie, Rock Creek; G. Landis, Newport; Chas. Gordon, Drift Creek; E. Lillard, Elk City; Chas. Allen, Elk City; S. G. Irwin, Newport; D. P. Blue, Yaquina; J. M. McDonald, Chitwood; Spencer Scott, Siletz; Scott Lane, Siletz; Al. Thomas, Yaquina; S. McLeary, Oregon City; O. C. Cuffin, Yaquina; W. L. Wadkins, Yaquina; F. M. Johnson, Corvallis; G. W. Frasier, Portland; Dr. Carter, Elk City; Alex. Catfish, Siletz.

It's got to be so that if you want to be in the fashion you must subscribe for the LEADER.

The first lot of the county books and stationery arrived by express from Portland today, consigned to Judge D. P. Blue.

County Judge Blue ruled this week that the clerk and sheriff must furnish their own wood for fuel or go without fire. He holds that the offices are fee offices and they must stand their own expenses.

J. Bradway and family went through Toledo today enroute to Newport where they will make their home. They have been living at Woodburn for about a year, but prefer the Bay to the Valley.

Judge Burnett not only keeps very commendable order in court; but he does not stand much "foolishness" generally. Yesterday Judge McFadden, the well known Corvallis lawyer, interposed a demurrer in a certain case. It appeared to the court that it was done merely for delay and the Judge promptly fined the Corvallis attorney $5 for contempt of court, which no doubt will break up a common practice not in the interest of justice.—Albany Democrat.

Last week Receiver Hadley, through Supt. Mulcahy, made a proposition to the people of Toledo, relative to building a depot at this place, which proposition was as follows: If the citizens of the town would subscribe $500 in money or work on the new depot building, the company would add $500 more and erect a $1,000 depot at Toledo. Receiver Hadley admitted the absolute necessity of a depot at this place, but said that the company could not afford to erect such a building as the place needed. The proposition was made known to the people through Dr. Rich, and accordingly a meeting of the citizens of Toledo was called at Grady's hall on Saturday night to consider the matter. The meeting was organized by electing A. J. Rader chairman and J. S. Gaither secretary. The merits of the proposition were discussed by prominent citizens, and a committee of three, consisting of Dr. Rich, Hon. C. B. Crosno and T. J. Buford, was appointed to confer with the company relative to the proposition. Then an adjournment to Monday night was agreed to. Pursuant thereto they met at 7:30 o'clock, and after a few short speeches a committee was appointed to canvas those present and see what encouragement could be had. The sum of $228 was subscribed by those present, and a further sum of $125 was conditionally given. On Tuesday the committee went to Corvallis to confer with the company, but Receiver Hadley and Superintendent Mulcahy were in San Francisco and nothing can be accomplished until they return.

TOLEDO AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Mrs. J. H. Brazelton is preparing a novelty to represent Toledo at what some have styled the Chicago show, and it would be difficult to offer anything more fittingly representing our people. It is in the form of a wreath woven from human hair contributed from the heads of more than three hundred people. By her aesthetic taste, aided by patience, nimble fingers, keen eyes and steady nerves, the artist has made the hair that is of many shades, represent the flora of the Pacific slope in Oregon, while the completed circle typifies the unity of our people and presents a more than common study. Some 18 twins are represented, while triplets, also, are to be personated. Mrs. Emmons, ninety-six years of age, is the oldest of those who have assisted with their locks, and the youngest are only infants. Other ladies, well—they are all young, excepting some who prefer being addressed as grandmas. This work, when completed, will have the initials of the maker and the name of state and town in the centre, woven of hair, similar to the circle.

Thus it is that an industrious, sociable and moral people will be indebted to one of their own for a personal and beautiful representation at the world's fair. Mr. Brazelton says: "It is not probable that many Toledoites will go to Chicago, but if they do they may find their 'upper-decks' ahead of them."
